at The Right House

Next Thursday, Friday and Saturday

Will Be An Event of Surpassing Brilliance

—As this is written, the preparations for the staging of The Right House Fashion Show are being gradually shaped towards their finality. The plan is to present an opening with all the magnificence of pre-war days.

Garments of a loveliness that begrar description, fabries in the new waves and colorings, fashion accessories of every sort are being received almost bourly, and the vast store itself is about to be transformed into an appropriately rich setting for the introduction of all this beautiful newness. What as eight it will be for winter-weary eyes.

You are invited especially to plan a visit to the store on Thursday or Friday, as it will be then that the formal openings will be par-ticularly featured, al-though the occasion it-self extends over three days.
